

Animals & People in Line

Animals and people form lines. Animals form lines to walk easily and safely from one place to another.

Once in a while, animals have to stop and wait. They will start walking again soon.

Sometimes adults form lines to move easily and safely from one place to another.

Once in a while, adults in a line have to stop and wait. They will start walking again soon.

Sometimes children form lines to move safely from one place to another.

Once in a while, children in a line have to stop and wait. They will start walking again soon.

Animals and people form lines to move easily and safely from one place to another.

