Barry is smart. He knows about letters, numbers, animals, and other things, too.

Barry asks questions
and talks about
things.

Only Barry knows
what he will say next.
Everyone has to wait
to find out what Barry
is going to say.

Sometimes people
are a little surprised
by what Barry says.
This is okay.

Barry thinks of fun things to do. Barry likes to go swimming with his mum or dad. Sometimes, Barry tells stories using toys, stones, and twigs.

Barry thinks, talks, and does many things with Barry's brain. No one can do it quite the same.
